

Nursery – Gardening Blog

On Monday Nursery planted beans with Isobel a visiting gardener. After working hard planting their beans the children warmed up outside with a cup of hot chocolate.

We look forward to seeing how they grow! Emma and Matisse the new class pets have also settled very well into their first full week in the Nursery. The children have enjoyed feeding, holding, and giving them showers.

